Case No. 3:17-cv-00939-WHA

DEFENDANTS UBER TECHNOLOGIES, INC. AND
 OTTOMOTTO LLC'S RESPONSES TO WAYMO'S FIRST SET OF
 EXPEDITED INTERROGATORIES
 PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH SIX OF
 THE MAY 11, 2017 PRELIMINARY
 INJUNCTION ORDER (NOS. 1-9)

Trial Date: October 2, 2017

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY

1 In accordance with Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendants Uber
2 Technologies, Inc. and Ottomotto LLC (collectively “Defendants”) object and respond to Plaintiff
3 Waymo LLC’s First Set of Expedited Interrogatories, served on May 22, 2017.

4 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

5 Defendants make the following general responses and objections (“General Objections”)
6 to each definition, instruction, and request propounded in Waymo’s Interrogatories. These
7 General Objections are hereby incorporated into each specific response. The assertion of the 8 same, similar or additional objections or partial responses to the individual requests does not
9 waive any of Defendants’ General Objections.

10 1. Defendants object to each Interrogatory, Definition, or Instruction to the extent it
11 seeks or purports to impose obligations beyond or inconsistent with those imposed by the Federal
12 Rules of Civil Procedure or the applicable rules and orders of this Court.

13 2. Nothing in these responses is an admission by Defendants of the existence,
14 relevance, or admissibility of any information, for any purpose. Defendants reserve all objections
15 as to competency, relevance, materiality, privilege, or admissibility related to the use of its
16 responses and any document or thing identified in its responses as evidence for any purpose
17 whatsoever in any subsequent proceeding in this trial or any other action.

18 3. Defendants object to each Interrogatory to the extent it seeks information not
19 within Defendants’ possession, custody, or control and not kept by Defendants in their ordinary
20 course of business. Defendants will provide only relevant, non-privileged information that is 21 within its present possession, custody, or control and available after a reasonable investigation.

22 4. Defendants object to these Interrogatories insofar as they purport to require
23 Defendants to search for information beyond that which is available after a reasonable search as it
24 relates to this case and the limited scope of discovery at this stage.

25 5. Defendants object to each Interrogatory to the extent that it is not limited in time.
26 Defendants will produce information from a reasonable time period as it relates to this case.

27 6. Defendants object to each Interrogatory to the extent it seeks a response from 28 persons or entities who are not parties to the lawsuit and over whom Defendants have no control.

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY

1 Defendants respond to the Interrogatories on Defendants' own behalf.

2 7. To the extent any Interrogatory, Instruction, or Definition may be construed as
3 calling for disclosure of information subject to the attorney-client privilege, work product
4 immunity, joint defense or common interest, or any other applicable privilege or protection,
5 Defendants hereby claim such privileges and immunities and object on such grounds. Defendants
6 do not waive, intentionally or otherwise, any attorney-client privilege, work-product immunity,
7 joint defense or common-interest privilege or any other privilege, immunity, or other protection
8 that may be asserted to protect information from disclosure.

9 8. Although Defendants have diligently complied with their discovery obligations at 10 this stage, their investigations in connection with this litigation are continuing. These responses
11 are limited to information obtained to date and are given without prejudice to Defendants' right to 12 amend or supplement their responses after considering information obtained through further
13 discovery or investigation.

14 Subject to and without waiving its General Objections, Uber objects and responds to the 15 Interrogatories as follows:

16 SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES

17 INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

18 IDENTIFY the locations and custody of all known copies of THE DOWNLOADED
19 MATERIALS, or any documents describing THE DOWNLOADED MATERIALS. If any of the 20 copies have [sic] no longer exist, explain DEFENDANTS' full knowledge as to the destruction.

21 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

22 Defendants object to this interrogatory because it implicates information protected by the 23 attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine, and the common-interest and joint-defense
24 privileges. Defendants further object to this interrogatory as vague and ambiguous because of its 25 use of the phrase "THE DOWNLOADED MATERIALS," which, although a capitalized term, is 26 nevertheless an undefined term in Waymo's first set of expedited interrogatories. Defendants
27 therefore will construe that phrase as it is defined by the Court's May 11, 2017 Order Granting in
28 Part and Denying in Part Plaintiff's Motion for Provisional Relief. (ECF No. 426, at 22.)

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY

1 Defendants further object to the extent this interrogatory calls for information beyond
2 Defendants’ possession, custody, or control. Defendants further object because Interrogatory
3 No. 1 is actually two discrete interrogatories, not one.

4 Subject to and without waiving the general and specific objections above, Defendants
5 respond as follows:

6 As Waymo knows, Defendants have conducted a diligent and extensive search of their
7 files, servers, and systems (including Mr. Levandowski’s Uber-issued computer) and have
8 discovered no Downloaded Materials in any such files, servers, or systems. Defendants are not
9 now, and have not been, in possession of any Downloaded Materials. Uber directed Mr.
10 Levandowski to return allegedly downloaded files (if any) in his possession and to instruct every 11 person that he has reason to believe may be in possession to do the same; however, to date, he has 12 not complied and has therefore been terminated.

13 Prior to the Uber acquisition of Ottomotto, the lawyers representing Uber and Ottomotto,
14 acting on behalf of Uber and Ottomotto, retained the forensics firm Stroz Friedberg LLC
15 (“Stroz”) to undertake an investigation in anticipation of possible litigation, and for the purposes
16 of providing Uber and Ottomotto with facts needed to obtain legal advice. Uber and Ottomotto 17 therefore have asserted privilege over that investigation and object to this interrogatory to the 18 extent it seeks to obtain information about what information may be in Stroz’s possession.

19 On or about March 11, 2016, Mr. Levandowski reported to Mr. Kalanick, Nina Qi and
20 Cameron Poetzscher at Uber as well as Lior Ron that he had identified five discs in his possession
21 containing Google information. Mr. Kalanick conveyed to Mr. Levandowski in response that Mr.
22 Levandowski should not bring any Google information into Uber and that Uber did not want any 23 Google information. Shortly thereafter, Mr. Levandowski communicated to Uber that he had 24 destroyed the discs. Uber never received those discs, and does not know whether those discs
25 contained any of the “DOWNLOADED MATERIALS.”
